

A New Creature, a one of a kind. God did not say to Adam that Christ would come from his seed, but from Eve's seed. Christ was "made of a woman." Gal 4:4. God had to break the Adamic bloodline with its sinful nature. Jesus, being the only begotten Son of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God, because God was his Father. This means that Jesus Christ is Divine, but not God. As the scripture says, 1 Timothy 2:5, "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus." And again, 1 Corinthians 8:6, "But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him." Jesus can be regarded as our Father because he is the Word whereby we have been begotten, but he is Not God the Father. Who was your father, the sperm that caused your mother to become pregnant or the man from whom came that sperm? From the man I would presume. So Christ is the Son of God, not God. Christ does not say he is our father, but our brother. Matt 12:50, "For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother." Hebrews 2:11-12, "For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, Saying, 'I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.'" When the early church lifted up their voice to God and said, "Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is: Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things? The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ. For of a truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together, For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done. And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word, By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus," they were not praying to Jesus Christ but to His Father and our Father, His God and our God. John 20:17. The term "God the Son" is not in the Bible so we don't have to worry about that one. There is only one God, The Father, and one Lord Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son. Ephesians 4:4-6, "There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; One Lord, one faith, one baptism, One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all." Trinitarians believe there is one God in three persons. But the scripture not only states that there is one God but that God is ONE. Gal 3:20. If there is one point that God tried to get across to the Jews it was that God is One. The Holy Ghost is not a person but the "Spirit of Truth" which proceeds from the Father. John 15:26, "But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me." The Word of God exists in at least three different forms, or is manifested in three different ways. Just as water can exist as steam, water, and Ice, (gas, liquid, and solid), so does God's word exist as divine Light (radiant vibration), Holy Spirit (fluid vibration) and Christ (static vibration). These are not persons. They are different manifestations of the One True God. God is not a person. Numbers 23:19, "God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent." God did impregnate Mary with His Word and manifested himself to the world as a man, Jesus Christ, the Son of God. This man had a human spirit, soul, and body, and learned obedience through suffering, and gave his life for ours, and for this cause, "God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." Isaiah 53:12 "Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors." Is Jesus an Angel? Hebrews 1:5 "For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?" Hebrews 1:4, says that Jesus was made so much better than the angels, and 1:6, says let all the angels of God worship Christ. And that He was made lower than the angels, but exalted above them. So much for that idea. It's time to review our original questions. Is Jesus Christ God the Father? Not any more than I am my father. Is Jesus Christ God the Son? The expression is not in the Bible so why should we use it? He is not the second or third person in a triune God. God is not a committee or a corporation. Is Jesus Christ the "Son of God?" Clearly he is and this is what all of the books of the Bible teach us that we must believe. Is Jesus Christ the "Son of Man?" Jesus used this term to refer to himself. It does not say Son of a Man. I believe that the expression "Son of Man" is used symbolically when referring to Jesus. Son of Man means Word of God. Is Jesus literally the Son of David? Some well meaning people believe this, using 2 Samuel 7:13-14, to prove their point. But this is clarified in 2 Chronicles 22:8-10, "But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build an house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight. Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days. He shall build an house for my name; and he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever." Is Jesus the Archangel Michael? Jesus is not one of the chief princes. Daniel 10:13. He is the Chief Prince. Is Jesus the Son of Joseph or any other man? No. Mary was impregnated by the Holy Ghost. The Word in Spirit form was made flesh and impregnated Mary with the Son of God. Matthew 1:18. By Charles G. Marlowe 4/2009
